

Air travel has significantly changed. Safety in air travel and security of passengers is both an institutional and a personal responsibility. These travel tips are offered as a reminder for air travelers. Please review the following information as you prepare for your flight and check with your airline for any special assistance you may require. Be sure to arrive two hours before domestic flights and three hours prior to international flights. For more information on air travel security requirements log on to <http://www.faa.gov/apa/traveler.htm> or visit <http://www.massport.com>.

Pre-Flight Preparation

Try to minimize both carry-on and checked luggage.

Be careful what you pack. For a comprehensive list in each category visit: www.massport.com or www.faa.gov/apa/traveler.htm
